CHAMPION OF THE INDUSTRY AWARD

The Champion of the Industry Award honours individuals who have made an outstanding contribution to the Australian cider industry over a prolonged period of time.

Cider Australia is proud to award the inaugural Champion of the Industry Award to Harcourt orchardist and cider maker Drew Henry. It is with much regret that this Award is presented posthumously following the passing of Drew in July 2017.

Drew Henry was the co-owner of Henry of Harcourt based in the Harcourt valley in central Victoria. He was a respected leader in the cider industry and one of the pioneers of the modern Australian cider industry in Australia.

With his wife Irene and son Michael, Drew started making traditional real ciders at the family's orchard and cidery in the late 1990s. He planted and grafted more than 40 English and French varieties of cider apples and perry pears in the family's orchard to produce the particular apples needed to make his ciders, and helped many others do the same.

Drew was an entrant in the first Australian cider competition in 2007 held in Lenswood, South Australia. Against Australian and international entrants Drew received the Best in Show award for his Perry and topped the Dry Cider class and the Dessert Cider class.

Drew was a passionate advocate for the traditions and craft of cider making. He was a skilled educator and mentor to many in the cider industry, and generous in his willingness to share knowledge. Drew was a foundation member of Cider Australia.
